

PINOT NOIR

Pinot noir at its best and most compelling, can be light in colour and weight, yet startlingly deep-flavoured with layered, complex red fruit flavours and reverberating acidity. Pinot from Chile, the Okanagan, New Zealand, Oregon and South Africa rival Burgundies for value and flavour. This competition saw wines from the Okanagan Valley, Similkameen and Naramata vie for top spot with wines from Aconcagua, Santa Barbara, Monterey and Willamette represented. Mary Bailey

DOUBLE INDIA PALE ALES

This is where you will find the IPA for those nights where you just want one beer and are not planning on accomplishing much in the late evening - we call upon the double IPA. Just like the other IPAs... only waaay bigger.
